

Students of the Month – January 2020

9th Grade: Anna Ramos

This is what her teachers said about her:

- Anna is consistently friendly, enthusiastic and responsive in advisory. I appreciate you Anna! -Mrs. Combs
- Anna is an amazing student. She is one of my top achieving APUSH students. She participates every day. She asks questions and advocates for her own learning. She works hard every day to do her absolute best! -Ms. Cwalina
- Anna is intelligent, hardworking, motivated, and mature beyond her years. -Mr. Meredith
- Actively participates in class. Always courteous and kind. -Mr. McNally
- Anna is exceptional in so many ways! She is an incredibly dedicated student who constantly challenges herself to improve. She is a leader in the virtual classroom as she takes the initiative to both ask and answer questions, engage thoughtfully in discussions, and support her fellow students by doing things like posting helpful information in the chat. She is ALWAYS kind and respectful, and is a genuinely caring person. I have been so impressed by Anna this year and I am looking forward to seeing her shine as a leader in our school community as she moves through her high school career at Calvert. -Mrs. Reid
- She is doing very well with her school assignments and meeting her responsibilities. She is also one of my students who always participates in class and most likely to volunteer to answer questions and contribute to discussions. -Mr. Urban

10th Grade: Maia Nerby

This is what her teachers said about her:

- I had Maia last year. She was always a breath of fresh air. She was honest about her math abilities, but wasn't afraid to try and try again. Her perseverance made her very successful! -Ms. Robison
- Maia is such a ray of sunshine in this dark time! She is constantly participating in class, offering insightful points of view, and demonstrating how much care she has for her peers! -Mr. Dillman
- Maia answers questions, starts class conversations, turns in her assignments on time, and works very hard to succeed in English. Her work ethic deserves recognition. -Mrs. Miller
- She was one of my best students last year. She always preformed at a high level, and she did this in both the in person and virtual setting. -Mr. Urban

- Maia is always positive, has her camera on, and shows great leadership skills! -Ms. Falcao

11th Grade: Katherine Akins

This is what her teachers said about her:

- Katherine is a great student! In our virtual environment she is not afraid to unmute and engage in the lesson. She checks to see that she is completing her work and follows up on anything she has a question about. She is always challenging herself. -Mrs. Sullivan
- Kate sets a fantastic example of creating space for all and celebrating everyone for who they are. She's a fantastic role model for her peers! -Ms. Graham
- Kate embodies being a Cavalier. She is participating in Junior Council, offering up excellent suggestions and creative ideas. She is doing amazing in AP World History, volunteering and doing extra credit to help the whole class out. She's one of the most excited and creative students I've taught, and I enjoy every minute of class time with her. -Mrs. Dryer

12th Grade: Devante Barnes

This is what his teachers said about him:

- Devante is an amazing young man and excels in all that he does. Devante is a member of several organizations in our school and embodies what it means to be a CHS Cavalier! -Mrs. Stover
- Devante has been a welcome addition to Senior Class Council this year. He brings awesome ideas and has a calming effect over the group. Just an all around great student. -Mrs. Montgomery
- Does a great job in AP Statistics. – Mrs. Wallmark
- For everything this young man has done as a student leader and MAC Scholars. He's also gotten into one of the best schools on a FULL SCHOLARSHIP! :) – Mrs. Dryer
- Not only does Devante show leadership and grace in Advisory, his participation in BI creates a positive learning environment that always puts a smile on my face. -Mrs. Craft
